

TERMS OF BUSINESS

MAHER LIMITED

(Herein referred to as 'the Company')

GENERAL

1 All Contracts entered into for the sale or supply of goods between the Company and yourself (herein referred to as 'the Buyer') after the date hereof shall be subject to the following conditions.

1.1 Any tender or quotation will have effect only for seven days (unless otherwise stated) from the date thereof and then will be subject to clause 1.2

1.2 A Contract to sell or supply goods shall be created only when the Company has accepted, in writing, an offer from the Buyer for the purchase by or supply to it of goods.

1.3 These terms and conditions are the whole agreement between the parties and no other terms and conditions or verbal statements will be binding on the Company unless the Company expressly in writing otherwise agrees.

PRICE

2 The prices charged by the Company are stated net ex-Works and will be those ruling at the date of dispatch of the goods. The Company accordingly reserves the right in its unfettered discretion to vary the price from that quoted or from that prevailing at the Contract date to take account of any rise and fall in the cost of materials, labour, services, transport or statutory charges between the date of the Contract and the date of dispatch.

2.1 Should overtime be worked in respect of the goods before dispatch at the request of the Buyer the additional costs may be charged at the then current rate as an extra and added to the price.

2.2 Any samples submitted by the Company shall be paid for by the Buyer at the equivalent price unless the Company in its discretion agrees to waive payment.

2.3 Value Added Tax (or any other similar tax in force from time to time) shall be added to the Contract price of the goods and any samples.

2.4 All goods are sold 'ex-works' unless otherwise stated, if the Company arranges or undertakes the carriage, freight, insurance and any other transport costs beyond the point of delivery such costs shall be for the customers account and shall not affect the provisions of the Contract as to the passing of risk.

DELIVERY

3 The goods shall be deemed to have been delivered to the Buyer at the moment of passing of the risk as mentioned in clause 6.

3.1 The quoted time for dispatch or delivery shall not be of the essence of the Contract and shall run from the acceptance of the Buyer's order or if later the receipt by the Company of all necessary information and drawings to enable it to proceed with the order.

3.2 The time for dispatch or delivery shall be extended by a reasonable period if delay in dispatch or delivery is caused by instructions or lack of instructions from the Buyer or by strikes, lockouts or other industrial action or any cause beyond the Company's reasonable control (including but not limited to failure of suppliers of raw materials or components to fulfill their Contracts with the Company).

3.3 In all cases where the Contract provides for delivery by installments or part deliveries each installment or part delivery shall be deemed to be a separate Contract and cancellation of any one installment or part delivery shall not avoid or affect Contracts as to the other installments or part deliveries.

3.4 The Company reserves the right to dispatch and invoice any part of any order when available.

3.5 If the Buyer refuses to take delivery of the goods, the Company will charge for return transport and storage.

3.6 Storage If the Company should notify the Customer in writing when the goods are ready for dispatch or collection and if the Customer fails to call upon the Company to make delivery of the goods or to collect the same within 14 days of such notification, then the customer shall pay to the Company a reasonable charge for the storage and insurance of the goods from 14 days after such delivery notification until the Customer actually calls upon the Company to make delivery thereof or collect the same from the Company.

3.7 Unless otherwise agreed in writing the Company reserves the right to charge the customer the cost of transportation on all orders.

3.8 All hire processing, or storage of the Customer's materials is at the Customer's risk and the Company accepts no liability for any damage to or loss of such materials howsoever arising, including transportation to or from the customer's premises

3.9 The Company reserves the right to re-charge to the Customer any demurrage costs incurred in the event of vehicles being unduly delayed at the Customers or Consignee's works when delivering.

3.10 The customer must examine the goods before he collects or accepts them and he must then sign a delivery note. Collection or acceptance of the materials by the Customer shall be conclusive evidence that he has so examined them and that (except as noted on the delivery note) they are free of defects which such examination ought to reveal

MEASUREMENTS AND QUANTITIES

4 All goods supplied whether or not specifically made or cut to size are subject to a maximum 10% variance above or below the weight stated in the Contract.

4.1 No claim for shortages, measurements, quantities or for material damaged in transit will be considered by the Company unless :-

(a) An appropriately qualified signature i.e. 'material damaged (together with description of damage) signed' is made by the Customer on the delivery note or

(b) The Company is advised in writing, within three days of receipt of material.

(c) 'Unexamined' signatures are Not acceptable.

No allowance for claims for short weight will be made unless the Company is given the opportunity of verifying same within three days and advised in writing as above.

4.2 The Company warrants that the goods are within usual Mill tolerances or buyers specification requirements regarding quality and finish and if authorised by the Company will replace or refund the price of any goods which do not comply with this warranty provided the goods are returned in the condition in which they were supplied, having firstly agreed to do so, within six months of delivery, in writing within three days of defect occurring. Generally the Company is unaware of the use to which its goods will be put but regardless of any express or implied knowledge of the use to which its goods will be put all conditions of warranties as to fitness for purpose whether expressed or implied and whether arising by statute, custom of the trade or at common law are excluded. The Company shall not be liable for loss of profit, damage to plant, claim for work done, or for any consequential or special loss or damage sustained by the Buyer as a result of any break of Contract by the Company. Off cuts will only be supplied at the customer's specific request.

TESTING AND INSPECTION

5 Testing and inspection if specified by the Buyer or his Agent may be at the Company's works or at an approved sub-contractor and such testing and inspection shall be final and conclusive as to the results thereof.

5.1 The Company shall not be obliged to produce test and performance certificates or safety critical certificates unless requested by the Buyer and accepted by the Company in writing.

5.2 The Company uses approved sub-contractor facilities for mechanical or metallurgical examination of its stocks and of materials and obtain appropriate mechanical or metallurgical test certificates. If requested by the Customer the Company will

8.1 The Company shall discharge its obligations by presentation of the shipping documents i.e. the invoice and Bill of Lading or Delivery Note to the Buyer or his Agent. Where the Contract is supply to the Customer a copy of any test certificate which may have been given to the Company by its suppliers or sub-contractors if available, but the Company does not warrant the accuracy of any such certificate and accepts no liability in respect thereof or for any loss resulting from an inaccurate or incorrect certificate.

on CIF or C & F terms the Bill of Lading shall be freight prepaid and in the case of a CIF Contract the certificate of insurance shall be deemed to be a shipping document.

8.2 The Contract price shall be paid a) against presentation of the shipping documents and an irrevocable letter of credit in pounds sterling issued by a London Clearing Bank for the said price which shall be presented to the Company at least three working days before shipment or b) if the contract has been agreed on open account trading terms, the Contract price shall be paid in conjunction with those terms.

8.3 The Buyer hereby warrants that if an Import Licence or permit is required for the importation of the goods into the country of destination then such Import Licence or permit has been obtained or will be obtained prior to shipment.

8.4 Where goods are sold FOB the responsibility of the Seller should cease immediately the goods are placed on board ship and the Seller shall be under no obligation to give the Buyer the notice specified in Section 32/3 of the sale of Goods Act 1893.

RISK

6 Subject to Clause 6.2 below the risk in the goods shall pass to the Buyer on dispatch of the goods from the Company's works to the destination specified by the Buyer.

6.1 The risk in the goods which under the Contract are to be delivered by the Company in its own transport shall pass at the time of unloading of the goods at the Buyer's works or at such other place as the Buyer may have specified.

6.2 Where delivery is made by the Company's transport the Company shall not be liable for any loss or damage of or to the goods in the course of transit unless the Company is notified in writing within three days of delivery of the loss or damage complained of.

TITLE

9 Until full payment for the goods has been received by the Company

9.1 The property in the goods shall remain in the Company.

9.2 The Buyer shall keep and store the goods in such a manner that they can be identified as being the property of the Company.
